

Shipping Policy

You can trust that your order will be quickly processed and safely delivered. We can ship products anywhere in the United States. RED-E PRODUCTS may ship internationally however some products cannot be shipped to certain international destinations so please submit a message to us from the Contact page if you have any questions.

Approximately 90% of all orders placed leave our warehouse within 48 hours (not including weekends & holidays & races). Remaining orders leave within 3 to 5 days unless otherwise notified or the item is a special order. Even with our huge inventory, we may run out of an item. If this is the case some orders can take several weeks. Average time once an order has been placed to the time it is delivered is 7 to 14 days.

CANADA ORDERS

Orders shipped to Canada are subject to tariffs, customs duties and associated assessments. These fees may include Import Duties, Brokerage Fees, Value Added Taxes (VAT) and Customs Clearance Fees. These costs are the responsibility of the customer. The RED-E PRODUCTS's shipping/handling charges do not include any of these fees.

INTERNATIONAL ORDERS

It is the responsibility of the customer to arrange a freight pick-up. Contact RED-E Products to receive pick-up instructions.
